Hello
World...

I am crashing at my friends' dinky flat

in London.

They have a rug that looks a bit like grass.

I have been alone in the flat for most of the day working

and spending some quality time with...

the helping hand

you should

you have spent too long

indoors
you are talking to a fake hand

so I took Johand's wise advice and I am letting the fresh air clear my head.

sanity
